

Follow-the-Money working group monthly meeting

Illicit financial flows and environmental crimes: new perspectives from South America and Europe

Join us for the next Follow-the-Money (FTM) working group meeting. This month, the speakers will present the findings from their recent reports on financial flows and environmental crimes before opening the floor for Q&A and discussion.

The meeting will be held virtually via Zoom. By following this link you can also book all subsequent meetings in your calendar. Simultaneous interpretation is offered in Spanish and French.

SPEAKERS

Melina Risso: Research Director at Igarapé Institute.

Melina is also a co-founder of the Agora! Movement, a member of the Fórum Brasileiro de Segurança Pública and a consultant at the Inter-American Development Bank. She has worked on public safety issues for over 15 years.

Ben Brock: Senior Wildlife Crime Analyst at TRAFFIC.

Before his role at TRAFFIC, Ben worked as an Inspector within the UK's National Crime Agency and built over 15 years of experience in tackling a range of transnational organised crimes.

RESOURCES

- Igarapé Institute - "Follow the money: connecting anti-money laundering systems to disrupt environmental crime in the Amazon". April 2023.
- Igarapé Institute - "Global Futures Bulletin: Money laundering from environmental crime". June 2023.
- TRAFFIC & WWF - "Wildlife Money Trails: Building financial investigations from wildlife and timber trafficking cases in the European Union". June 2023.

20 SEPTEMBER 2023

15.00 PARIS/08.00 LIMA

ENGLISH, SPANISH, FRENCH

ZOOM