

CAS Mastering Today's Anti-Corruption Challenges

Postgraduate programme with the University of Basel

Today we are seeing shifting geopolitics, democratic backsliding, rising migration flows and worsening climate change. Corruption significantly contributes to these global challenges — by distorting decision-making, diverting resources and weakening institutions. Understanding how to counter corruption is essential for professionals in all sectors all over the world.

Gain the expertise to safeguard integrity and accountability in your field.

At a glance

Next Start: 28 September 2026

Duration: Six months

Effort: 300 hours (11–12 hours/week)

Qualification: Certificate of Advanced Studies of the University of Basel (10 ECTS credits)

Tuition fee: CHF 5,600

Find out more:
baselgovernance.org/study

You have:

- ✓ a university degree
- ✓ relevant work experience
- ✓ proficient English

You want to:

boost your career in the public, private or non-profit sector with an advanced qualification that combines interdisciplinary academic knowledge with real-world insights.

Your learning journey

Introduction: Corruption in the 21st century – from personal enrichment to global security risks
Understand corruption, its manifestations and its interaction with other global challenges.

Module A: Governance and corruption

Explore the relevance of governance and how corruption impacts states, societies and organisations amid societal, technological and geopolitical changes.

Module B: The classic toolkit of anti-corruption

Learn the fundamentals of anti-corruption practice, look into legal instruments and evaluate enforcement and prevention measures.

Module C: Anti-corruption innovations

Examine novel approaches from political and behavioural sciences to prevent and mitigate corruption.

Module D: Anti-corruption implementation

Analyse international cases and develop strategies for countering corruption, enforcing regulations and strengthening governance relevant to global challenges.

Conclusion: Corruption in the 21st century – trends and new challenges

Present your study projects and discuss future anti-corruption challenges with an expert panel.

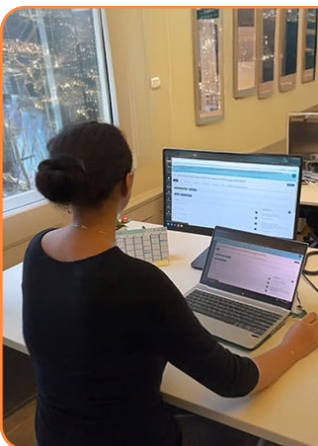

Study project:

Apply your knowledge to a real-world corruption challenge.

Forum and exchange

Reflect on your learning journey, exchange with peers, and discuss skills and career development in anti-corruption.

Flexibility through blended learning

- Weekly live online sessions
- Individual study with course materials on the learning platform
- Exchange through online forum

- Peer learning and networking at in-person seminar events in Basel (hybrid)