Basel Institute on Governance

The Basel Institute on Governance is a hands-on centre of competence dedicated to promoting good governance and countering corruption for a more peaceful, just and sustainable world. Established in 2003 in Basel, Switzerland, the Institute works with partners worldwide to advance knowledge, practice and policy on anti-corruption, asset recovery and business integrity. With field operations worldwide, it has some 150 staff covering 32 nationalities. The Basel Institute is an Associated Institute of the University of Basel.

Job description

The Basel Institute implements a number of programmes in Ukraine. The key objective is to support Ukrainian partners in maintaining and strengthening anti-corruption measures while Ukraine wards off the war of aggression and prepares for EU membership. This includes, at its core, Ukraine's Restoration ambitions. Restoration is understood broadly and goes beyond post-war reconstruction to include ongoing infrastructure but also other key reform efforts.

To deliver these assignments, the Basel Institute is seeking the services of a highly motivated junior technical expert with basic knowledge of developing and implementing public and corporate anti-corruption policies, conducting corruption risks assessments and analytical research. The candidate should have knowledge of Ukrainian government administration and legislation on corruption prevention as well as basic knowledge of international best practices on good governance, integrity and ethics.

Key responsibilities

Advisory work

- Conduct – in coordination with and under supervision of the Senior Specialist, Corruption Prevention – legal and compliance risk gap analyses, corruption risk assessments and other analytical work, in collaboration with stakeholders.

- Contribute to the development of new – and adjustments of existing – anti-corruption plans and policies.
- Contribute to the development of training and awareness-raising materials.
- Assist in research, information-gathering and analysis with a specific focus on anti-corruption/integrity and related topics, infrastructure, transport, recovery and reconstruction, ecology, subsoil use, public administration or corporate governance and compliance.
- Prepare brief overviews and updates on Ukrainian legislation and case law relevant to anti-corruption/integrity and other compliance-related topics for the team.
- Monitor and prepare brief overviews and updates on the developments in international best practices on good governance, ethics and integrity.
- Monitor and collate, on a rolling basis, background information for the purpose of preparing regular reporting for government, civil society and donors.
- Contribute to the writing of reports for government, civil society and donors.

Stakeholder engagement

- At the request of the Senior Specialist an/or Senior Advisor for Central and Eastern Europe, participate in coordination meetings, brainstorming sessions and workshops.
- Due to the multi-sectoral nature of the engagement, the Associate, Corruption Prevention will engage with numerous stakeholders at the Basel Institute.

Qualifications and skills

- University degree or equivalent in law or public administration
- At least one year's experience in the area of corruption prevention, risk management, internal audit or compliance
- Relevant experience as an anti-corruption compliance officer in a corporate/public entity or associate consulting on ethics and compliance in a top-ranked Ukrainian legal firm is an advantage.
- Proficient in MS Office
- Languages: fluency in written and spoken Ukrainian, good knowledge of written and spoken English
- Strong analytical skills
- Strong coordination skills

Offer

We offer an interesting and rewarding working environment with a proactive, dynamic and international team spirit. The work is both routine and varied and offers scope for initiative and innovation. The salary is competitive.

Application

Please submit your application at your earliest convenience, but no later than 23 January 2026, using the following link: <https://intranet.basel.institute/job/apply/57>. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis. Only short-listed candidates will be contacted.
